Jenna was a loving mother, wife and daughter. She was a young and vibrant woman devoted to her children and her family. Already blessed with two wonderful sons – Schyler, 3, and Kaiden, 11 months – Jenna and her husband, Tim, were anticipating the arrival of their third child, Ethen, on July 8th.

Jenna and her family recently moved from Utah to the Raleigh area when her father and husband's jobs were relocated. She enjoyed the warm weather and friendly people, and was doing her best to make a home here for her family. With her warm smile and outgoing personality, people were easily drawn to Jenna.
